A Vocation View: Are there people you know who you would like to encourage to think about a religious vocation? What would people think if you became a priest/brother/sister? (Mark 6:1-6). If you think God is calling you to priesthood or to consecrated life, visit our website at www.dcdiocese.org/vocations

CATECHISTS WANTED: A major worry for many parishes at this time of year is having enough catechists for all the classes. Not just any warm body will do. Catechists who are eager to genuinely share the Catholic faith with children are wanted – and needed. If you are a veteran catechist, you can help recruit and encourage others to accept the call to this vital ministry. If you are still discerning the call to serve as a catechist, seek out a veteran catechist, or talk with a catechetical leader of our parish. And if you are a catechetical leader, trust that the Lord will provide for the needs of the parish through the combined efforts of many in our parish. Remember that wherever two or more are gathered in his name, Jesus is present (see Matthew 18:20). Encounter "And he said to them, 'Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.' Immediately they left their nets and followed him" (Matthew 4:19-20).

Happy Fourth of July!

This week as we celebrated the Independence of our country, we will do well to echo the Psalmist, saying, "Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy." May we always recognize and use wisely the gifts of freedom and abundance He has showered upon us.
