CATECHISTS WANTED: A major worry for many parishes at this time of year is having enough catechists for all the classes. Not just any warm body will do. Catechists who are eager to genuinely share the Catholic faith with children are wanted – and needed. If you are a veteran catechist, you can help recruit and encourage others to accept the call to this vital ministry. If you are still discerning the call to serve as a catechist, seek out a veteran catechist, or talk with a catechetical leader of our parish. And if you are a catechetical leader, trust that the Lord will provide for the needs of the parish through the combined efforts of many in our parish. Remember that wherever two or more are gathered in his name, Jesus is present (see Matthew 18:20). Encounter “And he said to them, ‘Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.’ Immediately they left their nets and followed him” (Matthew 4:19-20).

Rachel's Vineyard Retreats Jesus said, “Whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.” Men and women of abortion, come and experience the true bread from heaven and drink from the well that never runs dry.

Healing the pain of abortion one weekend at a time
Next Retreat: July 24-26

Today's reading from St. Paul explains the “divine economy” of stewardship – “The relief of others ought not to impoverish you; there should be a certain equality. Your plenty at the present time should supply their need so that their surplus may in turn one day supply your need.”
