AVAILABLE IN THE LIBRARY NOOK AT THE NORTH END OF THE VESTIBULE Today, there is a threat in society that is ripping apart families, ruining marriage, and jeopardizing our souls. That threat is pornography. It's all over the internet, and pornography has become a threat of enormous proportions. Nine out of ten boys are exposed to pornography before the age of 18. One in five mobile phone searches is for pornography. A quarter of smartphone owners admit to having pornographic material on their phone. Fifty percent of all Christian men and 20 percent of all Christian women say they are regular users of pornography. Fifty-six percent of divorces involve one party having an obsessive interest in pornographic websites. Restored is a ground breaking book that offers the stories of ten women who were able to find healing and restoration after the betrayal trauma caused by porn. It provides hope for women who feel their situation is hopeless. It also helps men understand the devastation that women experience as a result of pornography. It can help them find the strength to resist temptation.

"Blessed are they who have not seen and have believed," Jesus says in today's Gospel. For those who have not seen to believe, however, we must be good stewards of our faith, living it joyfully and sharing it generously. Then, in our time too, "men and women in great numbers" will be "added to the Lord."
