Final Judgement

In the Apostles Creed we profess our belief that Jesus will come back to earth "to judge the living and the dead." This judgement will be the culmination of all human history.

This event is referred to repeatedly throughout Scripture with different names such as "the day of the Lord" (Is. 2:12), "that day of wrath" (Rom. 2:5). Theologians call it the "final judgment" or the "general judgment" to distinguish it from the "particular judgment" that each soul faces at the moment of death.

It is called "final" because it is the ultimate reckoning of every human deed. It is called "general" because it will include all souls living at the time of Christ's return, as well as all souls who have ever existed from the beginning of the world to that day. "All are to be judged—those who are, who were, and who will be" (St. Thomas Aquinas).

If each soul will be judged at the moment of their death in the "particular judgement," why is this second judgment necessary?

No one lives in the world solely as individuals; we are members of families, societies, and nations. Our deeds or negligence's have ripple effects that touch other lives in ways that we are largely ignorant of in this life—and for which we are due either punishment or reward. This ripple effect will continue after we die; our actions may continue to have effects for generations to come. We will contribute to another's good or another's sin.

In this life we do not understand why God permits what He does. Things are not always as they appear. When all the deeds of this world are exposed, we will see all things as they truly were—as God sees them. At the final judgment, the reason for everything that happened in this life will be revealed in a more complete way. That is why the Apostles taught us to never judge anything in this life, but to wait for God's judgement at the end of time. Pope Benedict XVI offered the General Judgement as a source of hope for those who suffer in this life, especially those who suffer from injustice. None of our suffering will be in vain; all will be revealed and brought to perfect justice.

When the Final Judgement is complete, God will achieve His goal to save fallen man, who will experience a greater glory than his original creation through Jesus Christ.

Parish Pictorial Directory

Sacred Heart is producing a new pictorial directory (It's been 6 years). Local Photographer Lyndsay Perez will be taking the pictures at her Studio, 418 Broadway (across from the city office) on August 10, 11, 14 & 15. Please take a minute to stop by the table in the church vestibule on the weekend or at the parish office during the week to schedule your appointment. Every family that has their picture taken will receive a free pictorial directory. A minimum of $10 purchase is required. You can choose from 8x10, 5x7 or 4x6 photos. The prints will be available in approximately 3 weeks from the photography date. We will need a few volunteers to help during picture taking times. If you are interested in helping, please call Pam at the Parish Office 285-2035. Pastoral Council is encouraging everyone to sign up so our parish can have an updated directory. Thank you for your support of this project.

PSR NEWS

With school just around the corner it will also be time for PSR classes to begin again. In hopes to allow our families to get settled into their school schedule we will have Meet the Teacher night on August 29th at 6:30 pm for all ages and PSR classes will begin on September 5th. Beginning September 5th our Kindergarten through 8th grade students will have opening session from 6:00 to 6:30 pm and classroom time will begin at 6:30 pm. The students will be ready for pickup at 7:30 pm. Our high school students will meet at 6:30 pm for dinner and class will follow until 8:00 pm. It was decided last year to move Confirmation class to 8th grade. Therefore, this year we will have both 8th and 9th grade students Confirmed. 8th grade students will receive their instruction from Kristy Mull and 9th grade from Michelle Kelty. A mandatory meeting* for all Confirmation parents and students (home schooled and PSR) will be on September 12th from 6:15 to 8:00 pm in the Parish Education Center main gathering area.

Those families unable to attend the meeting will need to schedule a time to meet with Stacy Sanger prior to beginning Confirmation class. Please call the church office to schedule your meeting time only if you are unable to attend the meeting as a family on September 12th so that your child may begin classes with the rest of the students.

COLORADO PEACHES

Our Sacred Heart Youth Group is once again selling 18 lb. boxes of Colorado peaches for $34 per box to earn money to attend NCYC (National Catholic Youth Conference). These peaches are far better than anything you can get at the grocery store. The peaches will arrive mid-August. If you would like to reserve a box, contact Michelle Kelty at 285-7039, a high school youth group member or call the parish office at 285-2035.

The sessions of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults will begin in September. If you know of anyone who might be interested in inquiring into the Catholic faith, please extend an invitation. The first several weeks will be spent in answering questions of inquirers and does not mean there is an obligation to join the church. These sessions may also be information for Catholics who want an update about their faith. For further information, please call Regis Lopata at 285-2684 or the parish office at 285-2035.

SAFETY AWARENESS
