ST. BENEDICT

After founding twelve communities of monks at Subiaco, Italy. Benedict of Norcia (480 AD – 21 March 547) traveled to Monte Cassino where he established a monastery and wrote "The Rule". This simple set of guidelines for how the life of a monk should be lived has become one of the most influential works in all of Western Christendom.

St. Benedict was born at Norcia, Italy around 480 AD, as the son to a Roman noble of Norcia and the twin to his sister, Scholastica. He studied in Rome and early in life was drawn to monasticism. At first he became a hermit, leaving a depressing world with pagan armies on the march, the church torn by schism, people suffering from war, morality at a low ebb.

He soon realized that he could not live a hidden life in a small town any better than in a large city, so he withdrew to a cave high in the mountains for 3 years. Some monks chose Benedict as their leader for a while, but found his strictness not to their taste. Still, the shift from hermit to community life had begun for him. He had an idea of gathering various families of monks into one grand monastery to give them the benefit of unity, fraternity and permanent worship in one house. Finally he began to build what was to become one of the most famous monasteries in the world, Monte Cassino, commanding three narrow valleys running toward the mountains north of Naples.

The Rule that St. Benedict gradually developed prescribed a life of Liturgical prayer, study, manual labor, and living together in community under a common Abbot. Benedictine asceticism is known for its moderation and Benedictine charity has always shown concern for the people in the surrounding countryside. In the course of the middle ages, all monasticism in the west was gradually brought under the Rule of St. Benedict.

We have a nearby Benedictine monastery. Conception Abbey is located in northwest Missouri where the monks are dedicated to the glory of God as St. Benedict instructs in his Rule. They exist to praise God in their daily cycle of prayer and work, welcome guests, educate future priests, and share the Gospel. I encourage all to visit the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception.

St. Benedict was Canonized by Pope Honorius III in 1220. He is the Patron Saint of Europe, kidney disease, monks, poisoning and schoolchildren. His Feast Day is 11 July.

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gifts to every human being.

Help us to continue a good work begun long ago.

Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth.

Turn our hearts toward the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
